

The Next Generation Prize

THE YOUTH PARLIAMENT

Casa de Producao Audiovisual, East Timor

The Jury members for the Next Generation Prize agreed that the nominated programmes in this category were outstanding in terms of content and production values. We were unanimous in deciding to reward the Production Company which we feel will benefit most from the training and development opportunities offered by this Prize. The winners come from a new country, with very little provision as yet for bespoke children's programming. We hope therefore that this Prize can make a difference not just to the winning Company, but, in the longer term, to the country's children, who have little access to the riches we have all witnessed here at Prix Jeunesse 2012. So this year's Next Generation Prize goes to Casa Producao Audiovisual from Timor Leste, for their programme "Youth Parliament".
